

ABOUT THE SCHOOL

The Syracuse School of Dance summer program offers quality training in Ballet, Modern, Jazz, Hip Hop, Tap, Intro to Dance and Creative Movement to children, teens and adults of all ages and skill levels. The teachers are experienced professionals with the unique ability to bring out creative self-awareness in their students. The summer sessions class size is smaller, allowing for more individualized instruction.

FACULTY

MARY PAT SPENO, Director, Mary Pat has taught at the Syracuse School of Dance since 1977 and also has studied with Le Ballet Jazz, Alvin Ailey, and Gus Giordano.

HELEN MOORE, Helen has studied dance most of her life on Long Island, Ballet Arts, New York School of Ballet, and locally. She continues a long teaching affiliation with the School.

BRANDON JONES, Brandon has been dancing and studying Hip Hop, Musical Theater and Jazz for the past 13 years. He has choreographed and taught for the SSD and the SCDC.

LAURIE DEYO, Laurie has taught, choreographed and performed with SCDC since 1984. She was dance faculty for Syracuse University and has a Master's degree in Dance and Dance Education from NYU where she studied Limon, Graham and Cunningham techniques.

BARBARA LA NEVE, Barbara has studied ballet, musical theater, jazz, modern, and tap. She received her degree in Exercise Science and Dance at Syracuse University and has a New York State Teaching Certificate in Dance Education.

ERIKA LINDBLOM-BENNETT, Erika studied at the Draper Center for Dance in Rochester and was a principal dancer at Western New York Ballet. She was the Assistant Artistic Director at the Western New York Ballet & Odasz Dance Theatre where she crafted dance training programs and choreographed for the company.

WHITNEY FORBES, Whitney has been dancing for over 20 years and teaching for 10. She earned a BA at SUNY Geneseo and an MS in Education at the College of Saint Rose. In both locations she taught, choreographed and performed with the Orchesis, Geneseo Dance ensemble, the Young Actors guild, Maude Baum & Company and eba Center for Dance.

JULIA SHOVE, Julia Shove attended Utica College, graduating summa cum laude and receiving a Bachelor of Science in psychology with minors in sociology and gender studies. A dancer of nineteen years, she studied at Ballet Arts of CNY under the instruction of Delia Foley, A.R.A.D. and Melissa Larish, RAD RTS. Julia completed her Royal Academy of Dance training through the Intermediate level. From fall 2015 to present, she has continued her training at Hamilton College in Clinton, NY, partnering with the Dance and Movement Studies program. Julia is a certified PiYo fitness instructor through BeachBody. She performed as a soloist with the Mohawk Valley Ballet for five years, returning as a guest artist in 2015 to dance the roles of Sugar Plum Fairy and Snow Queen in The Nutcracker. Her choreography is featured in repertory showcases and local festivals, incorporating balletic and contemporary movement.
